S&F Investments, Inc. dba Popeye's Louisiana Kitchen

When existing borrowers, Sidney and Jacquelyn Fulton needed working capital funds, Catawba Regional was able to assist. The Fultons own five Popeye's locations primarily in the Orangeburg and Columbia, SC areas. Popeye's offers Southern styled chicken in pieces, wraps, sandwiches, bowls, wings and tenders. Signature sides include Cajun rice, mashed potatoes, Cajun battered fries and red beans and rice. Funding was provided through Catawba Regional's Revolving Loan Fund program.

Revolving Loan Fund Program News

Catawba Regional recently assumed the Revolving Loan Fund (RLF) loan program from Pee Dee Regional Council of Governments and added Fairfield and Richland counties to the RLF lending territory. This increased Catawba Regional's RLF lending areas to include Chesterfield, Darlington, Dillon, Fairfield, Florence, Marion, Marlboro, and Richland counties, for a total of 26 South Carolina counties. RLF funds are available to small businesses for loans of $50,000 to $300,000 at competitive rates. Contact us today for more details!

Southern Carolina Surgical, P.A.

One Medical Park Drive
Chester, SC

Catawba Regional recently partnered with First Citizens Bank to provide working capital for Southern Carolina Surgical. Southern Carolina Surgical is a general surgical practice. Dr. Hughes (pictured above with assistants Paige on the left and Hanna on the right) completed his General Surgical Residency in 1999 and spent most of his career at Oconee Memorial Hospital in Seneca, SC. Dr. Hughes is a board certified General Surgeon with subspecialties in Thoracic, Bariatric, and Vascular surgery. Funding was provided through the Revolving Loan Fund program and two jobs will be created within the next two years as a result of this project.

SBA 504 funds are available to small businesses throughout South Carolina. Revolving Loan Fund program funds are available in the following counties: Aiken, Allendale, Bamberg, Barnwell, Beaufort, Calhoun, Chester, Chesterfield, Clarendon, Colleton, Darlington, Dillon, Fairfield, Florence, Hampton, Jasper, Kershaw, Lancaster, Lee, Marion, Marlboro, Orangeburg, Richland, Sumter, Union, and York.
