Mary Liz Fabric Outlet, LLC

2605 Kee Moore Drive
Chester, SC

When Doug and Jill Josey (pictured below) decided to relocate and purchase a building for their business, Catawba Regional and First Citizens Bank jointly financed the project. Mary Liz Fabric Outlet sells fabric and home decor products and offers sewing and upholstery services. Jill Josey brings over twenty-five years of experience selling home fashions. Funding was provided through Catawba Regional's RLF (Revolving Loan Fund) program. The Josey's expect to create two jobs over the next two years.

Pure Gold, Inc.
2250 Brattonsville Road
McConnells, SC

Catawba Regional Council of Governments (CRCOG) assisted Pure Gold, Inc. with a Revolving Loan Fund (RLF) loan for two CNC machines when demand for its shotgun chokes outgrew the capacity of its existing machines. Partnering with CRCOG on this project was Park Sterling Bank. Cindy Davis is 100% owner of Pure Gold, Inc. and is also owner of sister company and existing RLF customer, Quick Tech Manufacturing, Inc. Pure Gold, Inc. offers shotgun chokes for three gun models including buckshot and competitive card requirements for sporting clays, turkey hunting, and waterfowl and has a growing apparel division. Three jobs will be created as a result of this project.

Catawba Regional Activity

To date, Catawba Regional has closed 266 loans totaling $60 million. These loans leveraged over $133 million in private and third-party bank investment and created 2,463 jobs. Loans totaling $2.5 million were closed in 2015, contributing to these totals.

RLF loans are available in 26 counties throughout South Carolina. Call us for details!
